

Satellite radio is an excellent service. It provides a product far superior to traditional radio stations. The change in media ownership laws have limited competition in local radio resulting in controlled, non-creative, contrived broadcasts. That is why I switched to satellite radio. Since satellite radio is a fee based service, limiting their offering is stiffling competition. Do not let the NAB dictate what the free market can provide.

Do NOT limit satellite radio.